

National Telecommunicator's Week Buttons for Sale by CPRA Chapter

The California Public-Safety Radio Association (the Southern California chapter of APCO, Int'l.) is making available National Telecommunicator's Week buttons again this year. Cost is still $1.00 each, plus shipping and handling.

This year's buttons are red, white, and blue and are about two inches square. They are worn during National Telecommunicators' week (April 13-16, 2009) to show support for our professionals.

To order buttons, send your name, address, and quantity desired to CPRA, P.O. Box 1181, Riverside, California 92502 (CPRA Phone/Fax 213.291.9411). Enclose check made payable to "CPRA" or money order or purchase order.

National Public Safety Telecommunicators' Week honors all those in public safety communications. In some areas, the observance is called National Telecommunicators' Week. The week historically has been acknowledged by a letter from the President of the United States congratulating the dedicated and hard working individuals who work in our industry.
